This book is the chronological history of one of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority's graduate chapters, Phi Eta Omega of Scotch Plains, New Jersey, from its chartering in 1999 through 2013. Ten inactive members (sorors) of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc., rekindling a desire to be of service to others, assembled at a sorors home in Plainfield, New Jersey, in the early winter of 1998. Soon this small group grew to fourteen and, ultimately, to seventeen women. These seventeen inactive sorors became an official interest group of the sorority later that year. With the mission to promote harmony and friendship among members, to develop and implement programs to enhance the self-esteem of youth, and to assist others wherever needed in their communities, these women, full of energy and enthusiasm, ventured into unknown waters. Becoming the first Greek letter organization to affiliate with the New Jersey Orators, the Scotch Plains/Union County Interest Group helped foster the development of confidence and public speaking skills in youth ages seven to seventeen. TAG, a weekly tutorial program, was also established. Since its chartering on June 6, 1999, Phi Eta Omega Chapter continues to institute and participate in other altruistic programs: the Angel Network; collection of coats and other winter clothing during local coat drives; donation of suits for Dress Barns Dress for Success; financial support to two Kenyan students in Africa; donation of duffel bags filled with pajamas, clothing, books, and other sundries to Union County Division of Child Protection and Permanency; and the replacement of the headstone of Caesar, a Revolutionary Warfreed slave, at Scotch Plains Baptist Church in Scotch Plains, New Jersey.

In 1920, college student Ida Louise Jackson conceived of organizing a chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha on the campus of the University of California, Berkeley for young Negro college women. An interest club was formed, and in 1921 the National Office dispatched Soror Inez Wood Fairfax to the Northern California area to organize and to officiate the chartering of the first Alpha Kappa Alpha chapter west of the Mississippi river, Rho chapter. The book is presented chronologically with the Undergraduate chapters, Graduate chapters and Regional Directors presented together in a unified timeline which mirrors the development of the Far Western Region. Regional Director Barbara Denson Trotter's dynamic leadership focused on a theme of doing "Big Things" within the Far Western Region. Undergraduates have been doing "big things" in the programs and leadership of AKA. In the first two years of this administration, the Far Western Region undergraduates have increased participation in the AKA Leadership Fellows Program, and have been selected for the prestigious AKA-Arbor Day Internship Program and Peace Corps Campus Ambassador program. Undergraduates have blossomed in Undergraduate Cluster Co-Coordinator positions. Graduate chapters of the Far Western Region have also been recognized for doing "big things." Between 2012 and 2014 seven chapters were selected as Signature Sites as part of the MLK Service for Peace Program.

Since the beginning in 1943, the mission of the Gamma Sigma Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority has been to cultivate scholastic and ethical standards, to promote unity and friendship among college women, and to be of service to all mankind. Timeless Service in Gamma Sigma Omega Chapter chronicles the history of the women who sojourned in the life of one chapter of the first Black female Greek letter organization and the events that impacted their journey in Savannah, Georgia, from 1943 to 2012. Emma Jean Hawkins Conyers, former president of the GSO Chapter, begins with the story of Adeline Graham, a white philanthropist who bequeathed funds to the chapter for use in establishing an orphanage for Negro children, and reveals how the chapter responded to the challenge. As she continues the chapter's history through the years, Conyers shares notable details on members, awards, community projects, and events that helped to preserve a legacy that endures to this day. Timeless Service in Gamma Sigma Omega Chapter captures the spirit of unity, sisterhood, and service that still drives the sorority to fulfill the mission after commencing nearly seven decades ago.
