Marine Product Reviews has reviewed the Navionics Marine Apps for both the iPhone and iPad. Although our review was not done on Android, there is an Android App version available. We have used the iPhone version of the Navionics Marine – USA for several years now and consider it to be a ‘killer App’ for boaters.

Its next on my list to write a user guide for the Navionics Ipad App They do have a reasonable FAQ section on their web site. I am amazed that well known navigation software companies launch apps with a little or no user documentation. Most software is not intuitive and I think many users abandon some software out of frustration. Plan2Nav has no documentation at all.

The hardest part of the Navionics UI to handle is how to look up information on a spot on the map. They just made this easier on the iOS version. When scrolling around there is a crosshairs, and the icon on the right (a question mark) will show you information about that point (scroll over a nav mark or current arrow to see how it works).
