her mother is all it takes for the past to come rushing back. To find her, Gretel will have to recover buried memories of her final, fateful winter on the canals. A runaway boy had found community and shelter with them, and all three were haunted by their past and stalked by an ominous creature lurking in the canal: the bonak. Everything and nothing at once, the bonak was Gretel's name for the thing she feared most. And now that she's searching for her mother, she'll have to face it. In this electrifying reinterpretation of a classical myth, Daisy Johnson explores questions

EVERY GAME HAS RULES. HE'S ABOUT TO BREAK THEM . . .
Since becoming a major league baseball player, I've learned a few hard lessons.

Like never give out your home address on social media (sorry, Mom). Never shoot your mouth off without thinking . . . and never, ever let your personal life interfere with your game. But then I saw her - sitting alone behind the enemy dugout, watching me - and I just had to meet this girl. Now I know that Daisy Robinson has her secrets, but there's something about her that drives me crazy. Maybe it's her innocence, her absolutely amazing

She was educated at Hull French

Convent and later went on to train for Drama at The Guildhall School of Music & Drama in London. She taught Speech & Drama at Kelvin Hall School, Hull and remained there for eight years before leaving to study for a BA (Hons.) in Drama at Hull University. After graduating, she became a professional Actress and worked in Theatre, Television and Radio for several years. In 1979, she met her actor husband Ronald Herdman when they became members of Alan Ayckbourn's Company at his Theatre-in-the-Round in Scarborough. In 1982, they married and moved to London where they continued to work. In 1986, Susan accepted the post of Director of Drama at St. Paul's Girls' School in London and taught there until retirement in 1997. This Memoir tells the story of their marriage and is a loving tribute to Susan's husband, Ronnie, who died in 2004.
